Celebrated Citizens – Collecting a Community's History Grades 5 and 6

The North Vancouver Archives has preserved the histories of many celebrated citizens. During this program, students will learn what an Archives is and will have the opportunity to work hands-on with archival materials. Students will be introduced to primary research while investigating themes of immigration, transportation and natural resources, and the lives of leading community figures including pioneer Walter Draycott, athlete Harry Jerome, Chief Joe Capilano and mountaineer Phyllis Munday.

Offered: Wednesday – Friday, Feb 1 - Apr 20, 2012
