PROGRAMS IN YOUR CLASSROOM

Family Treasures Grades 2 and 3

The Family Treasures program encourages students to explore an essential area of history... their own! The Museum's History Interpreter will bring historical artifacts and photographs into your classroom and help students examine their connections to local family histories.

Students will be invited to participate in a giant treasure hunt – in their own homes! Working with family members, they will select a family treasure and research its story. Mini “museum exhibits” will be the finished product showcasing what students have learned. Projects may also be entered in the Museum's 2012 Flickr contest.

Offered: Wednesday – Friday, October 12 – November 25, 2011; January 11 – February 24, 2012

Time: THREE 60-minute in-class sessions presented by the Museum's History Interpreter.

Fee: $100

Booking Information:

At the time of booking: please advise if you have any special needs children and if you require an invoice.

All bookings are on first-come, first-served basis.

A waiting list will be compiled.

One week's cancellation notice is required or a $40 fee will apply.
